COLLEGE OF VETERINARY MEDICINE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Dr. Vincent Meador

Vincent Meador graduated from Ames High School and earned his BS, DVM, MS, and Ph.D. from Iowa State University. Vince is a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Pathologists with both Anatomic and Clinical certifications and is an affiliate professor at University of Washington. He has been a recognized foreign expert by the Sichuan government and visiting professor at Sichuan University in China. Following a few years as a practicing veterinarian (primarily pet animal, with some cattle, sheep and equine work), he worked for the USDA and major pharmaceutical companies gaining experience in both bench and management positions, with his last position being preclinical Global VP of Pathology for the largest drug development CRO in the world. Vince currently has a drug development and pathology consulting company called Pacific Tox Path LLC, was a co-founder of a hard apple cider company, and has had a major role in establishing a drug development laboratory in Shanghai, China.
