1. Overview:

This Wildlife/Exotic Companion animal internship program has been designed to provide in-depth training in Wildlife and Exotic Companion Animal medicine, anesthesia, and surgery, and related basic and applied sciences. The program has been developed to provide interns with a comprehensive knowledge of conditions affecting injured or abandoned wildlife, and exotic companion animals, and an introduction to zoo animal medicine. Our program strives to prepare interns for active careers in academia or specialty practice, and the caseload provides an excellent and broad experience over the duration of the program. The internship will provide advanced training for private practice or application to a residency program.

The primary mentors of the training program are faculty of the Department of Veterinary Clinical Sciences (VCS).

Clinical facilities of the Hixson-Lied Small Animal Hospital and the Wildlife Care Clinic in the college of veterinary medicine will be the primary training locations for the Iowa State University (ISU) portion of the residency.

2. Objectives

2.1 To provide advanced training in clinical problem solving and diagnostic and therapeutic techniques in the specialty field.

5.0 House Officer Presentations & Rounds Programs

The VCS Department offers House Officers several educational opportunities to enrich their training programs and obtain teaching experience. Some of these opportunities are in collaboration with other departments within the College. The menu of rounds and seminars is tailored to assist House Officers in literature review and board preparation and to expose them to a broad range of clinical and academic experiences. The weekly VCS Seminar/Rounds Program requires attendance and participation by all House Officers while participation in other rounds is program dependent.

5.1 The VCS Seminar/Case Presentations Program is designed to provide House Officers the opportunity to receive and present interesting, unusual, or difficult clinical material utilizing a problem oriented approach to professional colleagues and to develop manuscripts for publication.

5.1.1 All House Officers will participate and give presentations on a rotating basis. These presentations are scheduled by the Chief Resident.

5.1.2 House Officer attendance is required at all sessions. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each session.

5.1.2.1 Notify the Leader of the House Officer Committee when an absence is anticipated (due to vacation or out-rotations and when due to illness).

5.1.2.2 Excused absences include the following: illness, annual leave, attendance or participation in a continuing education program, presentation of a lecture, scheduled out-rotation or special service requirement per request of the advisor. All other absences are unexcused unless deemed excusable by the House Officer Advisor.

5.1.3 House Officers will be required to present an additional seminar if they have more than one unexcused absence during a program year.

5.1.4 VCS Case Presentations are designed to provide House Officers the opportunity to receive and present interesting, unusual, or difficult clinical case material utilizing a problem oriented approach to professional colleagues and to develop manuscripts for publication.

5.1.4.1 All House Officers will a minimum of one case presentation each year of their program.

5.1.4.2 Case selection should be approved by the House Officer’s advisor or mentor well in advance of the presentation.

5.1.4.3 Case presentations should utilize the problem oriented approach, have good follow-up, include a discussion of the pertinent current literature and take approximately 20 minutes to present with an additional 5 minutes for discussion.

5.1.4.4 Members of the audience will complete evaluation forms giving comments on the quality of the presentation with suggestions for improvement. (See appendix 15.6)

5.1.5 VCS Seminars are designed to provide House Officers with the opportunity to research and present scientific information and then discuss the topic with professional colleagues.

5.1.5.1 A minimum of one seminar will be prepared and given by each House Officer in each year of their program. Some programs require two seminar presentations each year.

5.1.5.2 Topic selection should be focused and approved by the House Officer’s advisor well in advance of the scheduled presentation date and prior to performing an in-depth literature search.

5.1.5.2.1 Topics might include a literature search in preparation for writing a research grant.

5.1.5.2.2 The presentation may be the results of a research project.

5.1.5.2.3 The topic might be an area of interest or one which will improve your expertise and understanding.

5.1.5.3 Seminar presentations of approximately 40 minutes are expected with an additional 10 minutes available for discussion.

5.1.5.4 Members of the audience will complete evaluation forms giving comments on the quality of the presentation with suggestions for improvement. (See appendix 15.7)

6.0 Teaching Program

6.1 Throughout the program interns will be viewed as role models by both professional students and staff. They should always present themselves in a professional manner.

6.2 The intern will participate in clinical instruction and evaluation of veterinary students assigned to clinics.

6.3 The intern will participate in preclinical didactic lecture and laboratory instruction as assigned by his/her advisor.

7.0 Board Certification

7.1 An important credential in veterinary medicine is board certification in a specialty area. One of the objectives of the program is to guide the intern in selecting a specialty area for board certification.

7.2 Interns should seek faculty advice early in their program as applications to the VIRMP are due in the fall of each year. Resume, letter of intent and references are required for application. Publications and research experience are often helpful in obtaining residency positions.

15.2 Code of professional conduct

A code of conduct is meant to help guide professionals in proper interaction with other professionals. No document can be all inclusive or specific. This list is meant to direct a professional veterinarian, or veterinary student, toward proper conduct and interactions within the hospital and college.

1. Each clinician (faculty, residents, and interns) has numerous interactions with veterinary students and should realize that they are role models for these students. Professional attire and language, and appropriate interactions with referring veterinarians are expected at all times. All clinicians must take care to never use denigrating or insulting language when referring to other veterinarians including referring veterinarians, or to students.

2. Clinicians should refer to each other and other veterinarians as “Doctor” while in the hospital and should instruct students to do the same.

3. All clinicians should strive for the best care for all patients in our hospital. It is inevitable that there will be differences of opinion as to what that best care entails. There is also the possibility that a clinician, for whatever reason, is not caring for a patient to a standard appropriate for this hospital. If a clinician feels that a patient is not cared for appropriately or to a certain standard, then that clinician should discuss their concerns with the attending clinician in a collegial manner (in private venue, not in front of colleagues or students).

4. It is appropriate to collegially discuss the care of cases in case rounds and in the presence of the attending clinician on the case. It is inappropriate to question the care of a patient by another clinician in the presence of clients, students, house officers, referring veterinarians, or attending clinicians outside of case rounds or without the presence of the attending clinician. This is a severe breach of medical ethics and may warrant corrective measures.

5. Students and clinicians come from diverse backgrounds and cultures. It is inappropriate to discuss another professional’s personal life while conducting hospital business.

College of Veterinary Medicine Collegiality Policy:

All CVM employees have a responsibility to maintain a positive workplace that is free of discrimination and harassment. Collegial interactions with all co-workers in the CVM are required. Faculty and staff are expected to model safe and fiscally responsible behavior for students, and are expected to be in compliance with established policies of the CVM and Iowa State University (including the ISU Code of Computer Ethics and Acceptable Use, biosafety regulations, OSPA, purchasing, etc.). All faculty and staff are expected to participate in the annual performance evaluation process.
